

What is your motivation for such a daring undertaking?

In a world increasingly filled with fear for the future and desperation, we have a very sure hope, based on our faith in Jesus Christ. In the death and resurrection of Christ, God's unconditional love gave us an eternal hope which overcomes the physical needs of man in the here and now. As followers of Jesus Christ, Christians are called to take on their neighbour's need as their own (Matt. 25, Luke 4).
