

Valentine Kaltenbach, head of the Kaltenbach group in Lörrach, was nice enough too establish the contact to the pharmaceutical company Sandoz. Three months ago, Dr Klaus John personally introduced the hospital project to the president of Sandoz.

Today, the Novartis-owned company donated all the money needed for the ICU construction.

Photos 1: Dr Andreas Rummelt, president of Sandoz, and Anne Schardey, who is in charge of PR and sponsoring for Sandoz.

The meeting with the missionary doctor took place near Munich on March 24, 2006.