

On Friday, August 5, a special work breakfast was held at the German Embassy, to which Ambassador Dr. Roland Kliesow had invited various foreign aid organizations. Dr Klaus-Dieter John and Dr. Martina John introduced the hospital project in Curahuasi via a PowerPoint presentation.

The representatives of GTZ, DED, Miserior and other organizations were surprised about how successful a purely privately funded initiative can work.