

We believe that the tomb was literally empty three days after the crucifixion. The resurrection of Jesus is the basis of our hope in eternal life. Since we have such confidence in the life to come, we think that every effort for the downtrodden in this world makes an everlasting difference.